Course Description

In collaboration with the Bernerhof Inn, www.bernerhofinn.com, an exquisitely redesigned resort, Mr. Costantino will be offering Inn guests an inclusive package of an exciting plein-air watercolor workshop, together with 3 nights' lodgings. On the Inn's scenic grounds and in elegant facilities, this comprehensive workshop will expose students to the freshness and spontaneity of using the watercolor medium on site, to begin painting the area's natural splendor or the historic and quaint small towns of Glen and North Conway, all with the majestic backdrop of Washington Valley and the White Mountains. With daily demonstrations and theory, the instructor will explain ideas about choices for subject and view selection, arranging a composition, color palettes, various methods of color mixing, and expressive brush techniques. Participants will be encouraged to explore wet-on-wet, glazing, blending, edge and dilution control - while capturing their own vision of their subjects. With individual review sessions & private demos during the painting day, each participant will learn ways to simplify their work, while learning to see and achieve the dynamics of light, contrast, value, form, balance, etc., to make paintings come alive. Experimentation will also be encouraged, bringing students to a heightened awareness of many approaches for painting en plein-air. Relaxed group reviews will occur in the Inn's comfortable lounge at day's end, with ample opportunities for unstructured painting time after class during longer daylight hours.

Participant's abilities should include basic drawing, a comfortable level of watercolor experience, and some plein-air painting experience on easels. With an expected diversity of skills, capabilities may vary widely, but instruction will be tailored to each individual's level, in a supportive environment from which the collective energies and interests will allow everyone to learn much more than otherwise struggling to discover alone. Expectations are for also enjoying the unique environment and inspiration of New Hampshire's White Mountains. And having fun while learning.

Come for a rare opportunity to work hand-to-brush with an award-winning watercolorist and accomplished instructor.

Workshop & Lodgings Fee: 3 Days $850.

"The vocalizing of thought process by the instructor was the most important value of the experience, other than my own participation in painting. Well spoken, well focused communication." S.E, Madison, WI

"I commend you for one of the most valuable and in depth classes that I've taken in a while. I appreciate the manner that you convey such detail in a kind and laid back manner - not an easy task. I also admire the way you make the effort to critique each and every student and answer our (my) sometimes redundant questions."
